Re: Case No. 22-cv-01445, Rodney v City of New York, et al.

Dear Judge Kaplan:

My firm represents the Plaintiff in the case named above. I write regarding Defendants' motion to compel at Dkt. No. 30. Immediately after the motion was filed, I provided Defendants with a copy of the release they sought. I had been obtaining the release, but neglected to respond to Defendants' counsel's emails — though I had intended to. Immediately upon seeing the motion, I personally ensured we obtained and provided the appropriate form of the HIPAA release (Plaintiff had provided the 160.50 release some time ago).

I sincerely apologize for the oversight, but can confirm that Defendants now have the required release. Obviously, Defendants' counsel should not need to follow up multiple times for basic information. I can also confirm I have spoken with Defendants' counsel and we both agree the motion at Dkt. No. 30 is fully resolved.

We thank the Court for its time and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
